

2022 FINALS

Just sending out a quick note to take care of some key points at the finals.

Finals Photographer: Picken Photography- each competitor will pay $30/competitor or $50/family. At the end of finals a code will be emailed to you and you can download any picture of the finals your want. He was the photographer at the Cardston Rodeo and took great shots!

Cattle Pusher: There will be 2 people assigned that will be pushing all of the timed event stock from the chute. Each timed event competitor will be charged $5 to help cover the cost of this. This will help in speeding up our CRA finals production.

Dress Code: All contestants are to be in dress code anytime they are in the building 1 hour prior to each performance, during the performance, and 1 hour after each performance. There will be fines assessed if competitors choose not to follow this.

Go Round Interviews: At the end of each event Go Round, there will be Go Round interviews. It is mandatory that all go round winners participate. Details on where to go for this will be addressed at the Contestant meeting.

Television Airing-The final round of the Finals will be filmed and aired on THE COWBOY CHANNEL! We are the only amateur/semi-pro rodeo in Canada to be aired! This is a very exciting step for our association and plans to grow this next year are already in the process. More details will be addressed at the finals.

Finals Champions-Finals championships will be awarded after the Go Round Sunday.
